

Learning objective: to spell adverbs

Adverbs are words that describe an action. Many adverbs are adjectives (words that describe things) with a "ly" added.

There are four types of adverbs: Manner, time, frequency and place.

Lions William, Maria	Tigers Lia, Kalub, Aaliyah	Bears Oren, Harper, Oliver, Essence
quickly slowly happily once sadly really often above below too oddly rapidly	quickly slowly happily once usually really often above sometimes instead furiously huffily	quickly slowly happily once usually especially often above immediately extremely suspiciously anxiously

