

LO: to spell powerful verbs in place of "went"

These words are all improvements on the boring verb "went." Remember, the verb in a sentence is like the engine in a car—it's very important to choose a strong action!

Lions Aaliyah, Maria, Lia	Tigers William, Oren	Bears Kalub, Harper, Oliver, Essence
zipped flew crept sailed skipped danced zoomed dove dashed glided followed tiptoed	sped plodded followed sailed hurried hustled stormed slogged dashed slinked shuffled tiptoed	burst trudged boogied barrelled hurried wandered vanished strutted escaped slinked scrambled thundered

